Shooting Stars. Iconic images of rock stars can capture an era almost as well as their music. Think of Jimi Hendrix caught on camera willing his guitar to burst into flames as he torches it at the Monterey Pop Festival in the '60s. A new generation, among them Coldplay's Chris Martin, Maximo Park and Brett Anderson, is pictured here in more than 60 images by Belgian photographers Koen Keppens, Isabel Pousset, Thomas Dhanens and Rob Walbers. De Cirk, 32/001 Zebrastraat, Ghent, until February 17, Tuesday to Sunday, 14.00 to 18.00, tel 03.222.90.50, www.zebrastraat.be
